DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Group I: Figures 1-3, drawn to a method of tracking a data storage device comprising entering information about the data storage device into a database through reading a RF tag placed on the data storage device; and storing the data storage device in an inventory based on the RF tag.

Group II: Figure 4, drawn to a method for a manufacturer to maintain a data storage device, comprising notifying a manufacturer of a failure or potential failure of a data storage device; locating the data storage device through a global positioning system; and repairing the data storage device.

Group III: Figure 5, drawn to a method for reading RF tag on returned of a data storage device; and inquiring a warranty period for the data storage device etc.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims appear generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 2876

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
